

The community of Loon Lake, Sask. wants YOU!

Our community has a lot to offer potential new citizens and we are very excited about offering an ideal situation for someone who is looking to build a new residence or a new business (like laundry mat, subway, coffee house, Field Store, dog groomer etc.) Loon Lake is a small but vibrant community that is close enough to the City of Meadow Lake, Lloydminster and Cold Lake to offer its amenities, but far enough away to offer the joys of a small town community and small town living.

Loon Lake is a farming and resort village within the Rural Municipality of Loon Lake No. 561 in the boreal forest of north western Saskatchewan, Canada. The population was 288 in the 2016 Canada Census, (a -8.3% decrease from 314 in the 2011 Canada Census), with an additional 400 in the farming communities nearby. The Makwa Sahgaiehcan First Nation reserve is to the east of the village and has a population of about 1300 people. In the summer time, there are an additional 1500 people at the 200 lake cottages and the 300 provincial park campsites.

Loon Lake has a 9-hole grass greens golf course area seven fresh water lakes within 5 miles (8 km) of the town. The town offers postal, food, gas, banking services. There are also three resorts - Pine Cove, Makwa Lake and Fire Song (Murphy Lake) that offer rental cabins.

There is big game hunting every fall within 10 miles (16 km) with a variety of outfitters. It also has a scenic bible camp nearby called Silver Birch Bible Camp. There is also Makwa Lake Provincial Park 5 km West. The community is accessed by Highway 26.
